GENERAL HUERTA, MILITARY DICTATOR, HAS APPROVAL OF REBEL GENERAL DIAZ

Insurrectos Celebrate News That Ten Day Warfare Will Soon End by a Continuous Fusillade Which Does Not Cease for Twenty Minutes.

Mexico City, Feb. 19.—Francisco I. Madero, forced from the presidency by the coup d'etat of two of his generals yesterday, is a prisoner today in the national palace. General Victoriano Huerta, who had been commanding the Madero forces against the rebellious troops under General Felix Diaz, has been proclaimed provisional governor general of the republic.

General Aureliano Blanquet, who aided in the overthrowing of Madero, is provisional military commander.

These arrangements have been agreed to by General Felix Diaz, and the ten days' battle which he has been waging with the federal forces appeared today to be over. Populace Gives Approval.

Throng of men and women and children seemingly gave popular approval to the sudden change in affairs by crowding the big square in front of the national palace and deliberately shouting "viva" for the three principals and for Manuel Mondragon, who had been conducting the Diaz military operations. The demonstrations of the night, however, were not without serious disorder. Marco Hernandez, a brother of the minister of the interior, Rafael Hernandez, was killed in the streets by rurales when he refused to cry "viva Huerta." A demonstrative crowd surrounded him and insisted that he join in the shouting, but he defiantly replied "viva Madero." He was answered by the pistols of the rurales, whose bullets killed him instantly.

Another instance of disorder was the firing of the building occupied by the Nueva Era, a newspaper organ of the Madero administration.

Cabinet Members Paroled.
Vice President Jose Pino Suarez, who was also arrested in the coup d'etat, was held prisoner during the night in another part of the palace from that where Madero was confined. Each man was under guard of two soldiers.

The ministers of the cabinet were given parole over night. Senor Juan Sanchez Azcona, private secretary to Madero, fled the country during the night in an automobile. The deposed president will be treated with all consideration by those who have him within their power. It is declared. General Huerta promptly despatched a message to Mrs. Madero, assuring her of the personal safety of her husband and declaring that he would be well treated.

Senators Force the Issue.
It was the determination that the battle in which the heavy artillery had been used in the streets since the outbreak of the Diaz mutiny must come to an end, which led a group of senators last night to urge General Huerta to the stroke that would not only terminate the terrible conflict, but at the same time remove the Madero family from public affairs in Mexico.

By 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon Francisco Madero and his cabinet, with the exception of Ernesto Madero, minister of finance, had been made prisoners.

Ernesto Madero managed to effect his escape a few minutes before General Blanquet's men took the other ministers prisoners in the national palace.

Gustavo Madero, another brother of President Madero, also was arrested. He had been denounced in any quarters since the first days of the Madero administration as an anti-politician and had been charged with being a false counsel-

A few hours later, General Delago and General Angeles, two of the federal commanders who were not in accord with General Huerta's plan, were added to the list of prisoners. Rebels Rejoice Over Peace News.
The plan had originally been made without the knowledge of General Diaz and his followers. The news soon permeated the rebel lines, and then began a holiday fusillade from the machine guns and rifles such as had not been seen since the opening of hostilities. It appeared for a time as though every machine gun and every rifle in the arsenal had been brought into action in an effort to fire away all the remaining stores of ammunition there.

It was, however, merely a celebration of the arrival of the news that peace was near.

The awful din was permitted by the commanders to continue for 20 minutes before the buglers were ordered to sound the "cease fire."

Church Bells Ring Out.
As the noise of the reverberating reports from the guns died away, the sound of merry peals from all the church bells of the city rang out. This had been ordered by a message from the national palace.

It did not take the public long to realize what had occurred. Long before the details of the formation of the provisional government under General Huerta had been completely worked out, the residents of the capital had begun to give vent to their joy and relief all over the city.

The shouts that were sent up were not those of the partisans of a victorious army but of people whose nerves had been worn to tatters by enforced participation in a long and desperate battle in the confined space of a great city.

MR. TUMULTY HAS TWO YEAR LEASE ON THREE BATHS.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Joseph P. Tumulty, who will be secretary to President Wilson after March 4, selected today the residence he will occupy during the time that he will rule over the executive office. The house, which is a new one, is in a fashionable section, and is a colonial brick structure containing 16 rooms and three baths. Some comment was caused when Mr. Tumulty signed the lease for the premises for only two years. He laughingly declined to make any comment on his failure to rent the house for the full four years.

White of Purity and Blue of Loyalty Seemingly Not Appreciated.

Akron, O., Feb. 19.—In order to avert any possible trouble, during the rubber workers' strike, Mayor Rockwell today decided to issue a proclamation forbidding the formation of parades or the gathering of strikers in groups. This came after a parade of 10,000 strikers and their sympathizers, and also was too late to affect a mass meeting scheduled for this afternoon in Grace Park. Extra police will be sworn in to see that the order is obeyed.

The biggest demonstration of the strike took place this morning when thousands of strikers and their sympathizers marched through the heart of the city shouting and exhorting everybody to "come out." In anticipation of trouble extra police reserves were called out, but no violence occurred.

Throughout the city, both in police circles and at the different strike headquarters the feeling is prevalent that the strike will come to a head within twenty-four hours. Merchants are beginning to complain that their business is interfered with by crowds blocking their doorways; rubber manufacturers, alarmed by the increased demonstrations are demanding more police protection; and strikers, with the I. W. W. leaders exhorting them more vehemently.

OHIO ELECTRIC CARS COLLIDE NEAR EATON: TWO DEAD, TWENTY HURT

Eaton, O., Feb. 19.—Two men were killed and 20 or more persons injured here today when two Ohio Electric cars collided at West Alexandria, five miles from this place. The dead are Motorman Guy Full and Albert Loy, both of West Alexandria. Conductor Kearney Coleman will probably die from his injuries.

The accident resulted from the rear truck of a passenger car, having split the switch at West Alexandria and crashing into the front end of a freight car. Loy was standing on the sidewalk and was too close to escape being hit. He was 75 years old. Among the passengers included in the list of the seriously injured were many small children en route to school in this city.

ENEMIES OF MADERO NEVER FORGAVE POLITICAL ACTIVITIES OF HIS BROTHER.

Bitterness Toward the Two Was Reason for Starting the Anti-Government Party and Primary Cause of Deadly Warfare Just Ended.

Mexico City, Feb. 19.—The execution of Gustavo Madero, known as the "power behind the throne" in Mexico, formed today a tragic sequel to the upheaval in Mexico City, yesterday, when Francisco Madero's administration was turned out by the federal generals.

The ex-president and his brother, Gustavo, were sent this morning as prisoners to the arsenal, from which Felix Diaz had bombarded the city for ten days. Soon after their arrival there Gustavo Madero was subjected to the notorious "fugitive law," by which he was free to run under the rifle fire of his guards. He fell dead under their bullets.

There is some trepidation also as to the fate which awaits the ex-president and his cabinet, because of the finding of a list of "those who ought to die" among the official documents of Francisco Madero's government. It is feared that this may lead to ugly reprisals.

Gustavo Madero, brother of the deposed president, was removed from the penitentiary at 9 o'clock this morning and executed. It is presumed that this was done by order of Felix Diaz under the notorious "fugitive law."

Francisco Madero, the deposed president, was later taken under a heavy guard from the national palace and lodged in the arsenal. There he was a prisoner of General Diaz in the very place which for over a week he had caused to be battered with cannon in his efforts to subjugate the rebel army.

Had Francisco Madero succeeded in defeating Diaz there seems little doubt that bloody reprisals would have been made.

"Those Who Should Die."
"Those who should die" is the caption on an official Maderist document found last night. In the list of proscribed there were 23 names of prominent men, including Francisco de la Barra, Jesus Flores, Magdon, Manuel Cabero, Alberto Garcia Grandos and Dr. Vasquez Gomez.

For some days De La Barra believed he was in danger of assassination and he therefore hid in the British legation, where he heard that numerous threats had been made to capture him.

The rebel troops are not to be removed from their positions for two or three days as disorders are feared. The authorities do not wish to give occasion for public manifestations.

Gustavo Madero was generally regarded as a much more powerful man than the president himself. After Francisco Madero had quarreled with Dr. Vasquez Gomez, and his brother, Gustavo, forced Jose Pino Suarez to the front to take the position of vice president although he was then little known. This was a thing the enemies of

UNCLE SAM CONTINUES.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Although his plans remained set for action in case of emergency, the United States today was distinctly relieved at the overnight news from Mexico telling of the abdication of President Madero and the apparent settlement of the civil war that has swept the capital itself. Preparations for eventualities, however, were not relaxed. It was recognized that resignation in government was filled with danger and no orders were issued that would halt the movement already begun.

Gathered under the covered declaration that they were to be mobilized for practice with the Atlantic fleet at Guantanamo, Cuba, 2,600 marines will be dispatched to that port as originally ordered, unless there is good reason for their recall. Such orders were not apparent today. The navy department also denied that it had issued any orders in any way setting aside the original plan of action.

The officials feel that this government has been, at least temporarily, released from a difficult diplomatic situation.

Officials realize that any outward exhibition at this stage either of condolence for the fallen Madero regime or satisfaction in the accession to power of the new military party might be quickly resented by the Mexican people and do much to

CLEMENCY TO ADA FORGER

In case of Charles Shively,
Who Passed a Bogus
Check.

RELATIVES CAME TO HIS RESCUE

And Made Good Amount of the Check With City
Bank of Lima.

Just as the local police officers were about to waive the meshes of the law about Charles Shively, an Ada young man on the charge of forgery last evening relatives came to his rescue and settled in with the City Bank of Lima for the amount of a bogus check cashed there yesterday morning. Officials of the bank agreed not to prosecute the young man at the urgent solicitation of his family, and the case against him was dropped.

The check was for $5.00 and was made payable to Wilson Hughes, proprietor of the Congress Cafe of this city. It was signed by Paul Sales, publisher of the Northern Light at Ada, and offered for payment at the City bank by Shively, with the endorsement of Hughes on the back of the check.

The first intimation that the officials of the bank had that the check was a forgery was when Hughes disclaimed all knowledge of the check, and pronounced his endorsement on the back of the check as a forged signature. Sales was called up by long distance telephone and denied having issued a check in favor of the local man.

The police department was at once notified and furnished with a description of the forged check. Detectives were detailed to work on the case of about 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and before nightfall had succeeded in establishing a clue to the identity of the guilty man. Just at the time that they were ready to make the arrest, the bank officials withdrew the charges and notified the authorities that they had promised the young man's family that they would not prosecute the case against him.

The forgery was one of the most clever ever pulled off in this city, and the signature of Hughes on the back of the check was so near genuine that it completely fooled the employees of the bank, where Hughes transacts the major portion of his banking business.

Shively is 21, and comes from a very prominent Ada family and has never been in trouble before. He has been working for Sales for the past few weeks, and it is probably on this account that he used the name of his employer in signing the check. It was because of the fact that the young man had always heretofore borne a good reputation that the bank officials decided not to prosecute him.

LIMA MEN APPEAR BEFORE COMMITTEES

C. D. Crites and T. P. Riddle Address Legislators at Columbus on Proposed Bills

Lima men were quite prominent in the public hearings held before the committees of the state legislature at Columbus yesterday.

C. D. Crites, cashier of the First National bank of this city, appeared before the senate committee on banks and banking by invitation relative to the proposed law regulating private banks in Ohio. The committee had adjourned a previous meeting in order to hear Mr. Crites' views on the matter, which were given much weight because of his long association with banking institutions.

T. P. Riddle, secretary of the Tri-State Grain and Producers' association with headquarters in Lima, addressed the house committee on dairy and food products relative to the proposed amendment known as House Bill 216, which seeks to regulate the weight of farm products.

The amendment in its proposed form has met with considerable objection among the various grain dealers and farmers throughout the state, in whose interest Riddle appeared before the committee. He was assured that certain objectionable features in the bill would be eliminated.

QUICK WORK BY FIREMEN

Prevented Serious Fire at the Auditorium This Afternoon.

ORIGIN OF FIRE
IS A MYSTERY.

Damage to Interior Finishings Estimated at $100
by Chief Mack.

The full equipment of the central fire station was called by an alarm of fire sent in from the Auditorium building about 1:15 o'clock this afternoon. The origin of the fire is a mystery, but it is believed that it started from the pipe which runs from the gas grate to the ceiling.

The fire was put out with chemical, but a loss of fully $100 to the interior finishings was sustained before the firemen had it under control. An expensive mantle was almost totally ruined while considerable damage was done to the walls.

Mrs. Reed who was cleaning the Auditorium after the basketball game last evening discovered the fire and at once notified the central fire department. She claims that no fire had been started in the grate today, and that the blaze had been smoldering since last evening. It is also probable that the fire could have started from a lighted cigar or cigarette.

It was very fortunate that someone was in the building when the fire started to gain headway, as it would probably have been some time before it would have been discovered from the outside. A bad fire would have endangered valuable property in the business district.

Chief Mack will issue orders to the firemen of the Auditorium to remove the pipe from its present position or else surround it with the necessary fire guards. In its present position there is grave danger of fire any time that the grate is lighted.

Another satisfactory demonstration was made of the Pyrean chemical compound recently purchased for the use of the department and Chief Mack will recommend that this preparation be used exclusively by the department.

Church Bells Proclaim Glad Tidings to People Throughout Mexico

In the district about the United States embassy were just as demonstrative as the Latin-Americans. In diplomatic circles where the tension also had been great, the situation which had been found was most heartily.

Along San Francisco street and in other thoroughfares of the downtown district extending as far as the eye could see, the national flag was flying from the poles of the national palace, tens of thousands of people pushed their way back and forth waving banners which had been improvised out of the first material to hand and on which was printed the one word peace.

Shouts of "Hurrah for Huerta," "Hurrah for Blanco," "Hurrah for Madero" sounded everywhere throughout the city.

Soldiers as Policemen

The soldiers who a few days before had been on the firing line were posted as sentinels on the street corners taking the place of the police who had not been on duty on the abandoned streets for over ten days.

There was practically no disorder except one notable case of direct vengeance. This was the burning of the building and plant of the Nueva Era, the organ of President Madero. This newspaper was already despoiled by the anti-government element which utilized the opportunity of paying off in kind the vandalism of the followers of Madero who directed the previous revolt, but the plant of the newspaper El Pais was spared.

General Blanco brought about the arrest of Madero after he had made a speech to the crowd in which he said that the time had come when the slaughter in the city must cease. He had already detailed 20 men to march to the president's private office in the palace and guard the entrance. Colonel Riverol was placed in command of this squad.

The president's first action of the new turn of affairs came when he walked into the hall of the ambassadors where he saw federal soldiers standing with their rifles at cock. One of the soldiers over-enthusiastic stepped forward and dropped his rifle into a line with the president's breast.

Madero thrust the rifle aside and seized hold of the soldier. In the struggle the arm was dislocated and the bullet flying into the air.

The soldiers and to report brought Madero's personal guards to his assistance but they offered ineffectual resistance to the soldiers. At the conclusion of the brief encounter two of the guards had been killed and six others wounded among them Colonel Riverol who was mortally wounded and died a short time afterward.

stance and there appears to be excellent reason to believe that some of the cabinet ministers were involved in the plot. Francisco Madero, always of a nervous disposition appeared like a wild man at the moment of his arrest. He talked volubly about traitors, denouncing bitterly those who had brought about his downfall. Later, however, he recovered his composure and as he stood between his guards he seemed to regard the matter more philosophically.

The president was asked to choose whether he would send his resignation in the legal channel to congress or be expelled from the country. In the latter event, he and his family would be escorted to Vera Cruz and placed on a vessel the same as was Porfirio Diaz, a little more than a year ago.

General Huerta later in the day called upon the executive officers of the senate and chamber of deputies to summon a special session of congress in order to legalize the change of government and to name a provisional president.

General Huerta declared that he would deliver one position to any body who was legally named. It is understood that special general elections will be called at an early date to select a successor to Madero. In the meanwhile Huerta has assumed the post of governor general and has appointed General Blanco military commander of the federal district.

All this was done without the agreement and without the knowledge of Felix Diaz. General Huerta played the bold stroke of taking Diaz at his word given some days ago when he said he was not fighting for personal ambition but merely for the removal of Madero.

News of Huerta's coup was sent to Diaz through the American embassy.

Celebration of Peace

The celebration of peace by the people really began a few minutes after Madero had been taken prison. Although the news of his arrest did not become common knowledge until some time afterward, great curiosity has been aroused by unusual activity in the national palace and the arrival there of General Huerta with General Madero.

One of the brothers of the president, hundreds of people gathered around the doors of the building. When General Huerta saw that the people were being held back by a line of soldiers he gave orders to let them enter. The crowd poured through the wide doors in a solid stream until the courtyard was filled.

General Huerta then made a short speech to the gathering, briefly outlining the results of the action. He assured his hearers that peace would be established throughout the republic.

The people had expected to hear General Huerta announce the victory of the government forces or that of Diaz had surrendered.

Many of them stood for a moment supplied by the statement which Huerta made. Then they broke into a cheer which reached the ears of Madero in his temporary prison.

The plot to overthrow Madero took definite form about noon yesterday.

General Aurelio Blanco never been in sympathy with the idea of an artillery duel within the ranks of a popular city. He was moved by the fact that he had in the ranks of the rebels. He arranged that Blanco should play a role in the peace plan second only to that of General Victoriano Huerta.

The force of 1,000 men belonging to Blanco's command was in from his position near the Bitter Root Valley and stationed near national palace. It was expected that this force was intended to place the reserve troops which had been there many weeks and loyalty to Madero was unquestioned.

CELEBRATE PATRON DAY

Welsh of the City to Observe
St. David's Day, Next Wednesday.

DAVID HUGH JONES
AND LLOYD MORRIS

Both Former Pastors, to be Among the Many Speakers.

Great arrangements are being made by members of the Cymroborion society for the celebration of St. David's day, which will be held at the First Congregational church next Wednesday evening. St. David is the patron saint of the Welsh people and their society is known by the Welsh name as stated above. Thomas H. Jones, of Lima, is president of the society and Rev. David Hugh Jones, former pastor of the Market Street Presbyterian church, is vice president. E. Owen is secretary.

Although Rev. Mr. Jones has gone to Evanston to take charge of a pastorate, he has still retained his membership in this society and his office. He is expected to be here to attend the banquet, which will be served upon St. David's day and will also be one of the speakers. Rev. O. Lloyd Morris, of Ypsilanti, Mich., former pastor of the First Congregational church, is also a member of the society and he has informed the committee in charge of arrangements, of which Arthur D. Thomas is chairman, that he will be present. He will also deliver an address.

Details have been arranged whereby the Ladies' circle of the church will serve the banquet, beginning at 5 o'clock. The price of the tickets have been set at 35 cents and this will admit the bearer to a seat at the banquet table and also to the entertainment, which will be held following, in the auditorium of the church.

Rev. William Surdval of the Gomer church, will also be one of the speakers and the program of organ solos, musical and literary numbers, will include some of the best talent in the city. Former parishioners of both Rev. Jones and Rev. Morris will be glad to have them in Lima again and will wish to attend to listen to their speeches and meet them personally. The public will be warmly welcomed at the banquet and entertainment, which is the fourth annual meeting of the society.

THE IDLER.

Friends of Albert Tompkins, local druggist, will be glad to know he is improving nicely from an attack of hemorrhage he suffered recently, although not yet able to assume his duties at his place of business.

Rev. M. C. Howey will conduct evangelistic services at Epworth M. E. church at 7:30 Thursday evening.

The rumor has been persistent throughout the city during the day to the effect that one of the old-fashioned dog-fights was scheduled for this evening. The wise ones seem very reticent about divulging the proposed location, and of the names of the owners of the pups and the promoter of the encounter. Suspicion rests upon one of the Lima professional men as occupying the last named office. Great secrecy has been placed on the affair, and whether or not the police officials will succeed in locating the arena before the appointed hour is the only thing that is now worrying the promoters.

Mr. C. D. Crites, the cashier of the First National bank of this city, and formerly the head of the Bankers' association of this part of the state, has just returned from Columbus, where he had been called by a committee of the state senate. He had died of a heart attack before this committee on banks and banking, concerning his opinion of the working of the proposed law that will regulate private banks in the state. Mr. Crites is one of the most highly respected bankers in the state, and his opinions carry much weight with those who are in control.

Much attention was attracted this afternoon on west Market street by the stopping of one of the through Lima to Cleveland cars, and by the crowd of people that surrounded the car. Many conjectures were made by everyone approaching, and none passed by without joining the crowd. It was not an accident, however, but a short circuit, and the crew spent some time attempting to find the trouble. The car was found to be beyond immediate repair, and the arrival of the local interurban at one-thirty was timely. This latter car pushed the crippled one to a siding beyond the city limits.

than ever, are becoming restless. And on top of this, the struggle of the Akron Central labor union to win over as many strikers as possible for affiliation with the A. F. of L., is causing discord in the ranks of those out.

Heretofore the speeches made in I. W. W. strike headquarters have been for peace. This morning scores of red flags were in evidence at strike headquarters and for the first time appeared in the street parades. "The American flag is the flag of the capitalist," was shouted at a crowd of foreign strikers as they were leaving the hall for the noon-day demonstration.

At the headquarters of the I. W. W. executive committee the doors are locked. Word is given out that the scale committee is in session and will not be ready to report for two days.

First Bloodshed. As a result of the first violence of the rubber strike, the stabbing of Sarrak Sapproprian, a Roumanian striker, early today, the police drag-net has been tightened and the warning sent out that any further show of violence will be met with summary action.

The entrance of the Federation of Labor into the strike activities, although not in conjunction with the Industrial Workers of the World, complicates the situation. Industrial Workers of the World leaders said today that this action has increased the total number of strikers to fourteen thousand. The manufacturers and the city authorities insist that this estimate is grossly exaggerated.

It was said today that the schedule of the strikers' demands is about two-thirds completed.

BIG MEETING ON SATURDAY

Which Had Been Set for the Court House Changed to Memorial Hall.

McDARMAN DITCH
PETITION GRANTED.

Dingledine Case vs. the Ohio
Electric Now in Hands
Of the Jury.

It has been decided by those who have the matter in hand that the assembly room at the court house will not be large enough to accommodate all those who will wish to be present at the citizens' meeting that has been called for next Saturday afternoon. As a result the commissioners who have the matter in hand have made arrangements to hold the meeting at the Allen County Memorial Hall. So large was the attendance at the meeting that was held a week ago, that many were compelled to stand, both at the morning and at the afternoon session.

The success that was met with in the holding of the first meeting, and the liberal expression of their views by all those who were present, as well as the manner in which all were given an opportunity to speak and tell their opinions, will without a doubt cause a great many to attend the meeting that will be held next Saturday, who were not on hand at the court house. The meeting will be called at 1 o'clock at Memorial Hall on Saturday afternoon, the 22nd of February.

This morning County Commissioners Fisher, Fry and Arnold made a trip out into Perry township, to make an inspection in regard to the petition for the McDarmen ditch. After all had been heard the petition was granted. The engineer was instructed to have the estimate before the board of the third of April.

The jury in the Dingledine damage case retired to their room for deliberation late yesterday afternoon, but soon after being locked in were again summoned by the judge. He told them that he realized they had had a long session, and advised that they recess till this morning, and rest during the night. This was done, and they reconvened this morning at 9 o'clock for their deliberations. At the time of this writing they had returned no verdict.

In an article that was published in last evening's edition of this paper, in reference to a case that had come up before Justice Everett, the Allen County Humane society was named as filing the charges and making the arrest. This was erroneous, and should have been the Lima Humane society, through their agent, J. J. Collison.

NEW RULES OF LEGISLATURE

Cause Considerable Confusion in the Lower House.

MEMBERS PINE FOR FORMER PROCEDURE

Debate on Final Passage is Found to be in Great Demand.

Columbus, O., Feb. 19.—Members of one house of the general assembly would be privileged before the members of the opposite house to speak in favor of their bills, if a resolution which has been prepared by Representative Agler of Stark county, is passed. The author of the bill would be given 15 minutes in which to explain its provisions to the members of the other house.

The new rules adopted by the house of representatives, and which went into effect last week, are causing considerable confusion among the members. Bills are now referred to committees on the first reading and are debated upon second reading. After they have been passed upon second reading, they cannot be further debated or amended unless the rules are suspended. Final passage upon third reading is now merely an agreement to the phraseology used in the bill.

Under the new rules, bills can be passed by a viva voce vote. Under the old rules, the debate upon bills came up on the third reading and a roll call vote was required. Now the roll call vote comes only on the final passage.

The members of the judiciary committee started a movement against the new rules of the house today. The committee do not permit them because and discussion when an amendment is made. The movement started when Mr. Snyder of Pickaway county, pointed out a feature in the winter bill passed to third reading Tuesday, providing that a woman shall attain her majority at 21 instead of 18 as now. Mr. Snyder pointed out that frequently a woman with property in her own right would marry at 18 and for three years could not enter into any kind of a contract regarding it. The chairman of the committee appointed a committee consisting of Messrs. Vanderbeide, Snyder of Pickaway, and Snyder of Hamilton, to confer with the speaker regarding the rules. They want the old rules, with debate, on final passage.

The house committee on labor today recommended for passage the following bill:

The Volstead bill providing that interurban railroads cannot require their employees to work more than 15 consecutive hours without giving them full eight hours' rest.

The Kilrain bill providing that street railway companies operating pay-as-you-enter cars must provide their conductors with seats.

The Reinhardt bill abolishing the Saturday half holiday was recommended for indefinite postponement.

LARGE SCORE WAS RESULT

Of the Basketball Game at Auditorium Last Night.

MANSFIELD FAILED TO STEM THE TIDE.

White Stars Scored Sixty-seven Against Opponents Twenty-four.

In a basket ball game which on the start promised great things in the line of excitement and a close score, but which soon developed into a veritable landslide for the Lima team, the White Stars last evening defeated the Mansfield Wizards by a score of 67 to 24. The playing was fast throughout, particularly on the part of the local aggregation, and they furnished a great deal in the manner in which they stepped away from their opponents. The Mansfield aggregation started the game with a few swift plays which netted them six points before Lima got started. Soon this was tied, and when the team work of the Stars began the visitors were not to be found.

Every one on the Lima team was an individual star, but in particular the manner in which the Bowman brothers succeeded in hitting the basket caused a great deal of comment. Likewise did the team work which the boys displayed, and the most excellent manner in which the ball was dug out by the guards and center and passed to the forwards. Coach Barr is very much elated over the form which the locals showed last night.

The lineup—Lima 67, Mansfield 24. M. Bowman, Miller; H. Bowman, Brunt; E. Bowman, Hughes; Callahan, Longsdorf; O'Connor, Straw. Points Scored—M. Bowman, 22; H. Bowman, 14; Eddy, 18; Callahan, 8; Baker, 2; Buescher, 2; Miller, 4; Brunk, 6; Hughes, 12; Straw, 2. Substitutes—Baker for M. Bowman; Buescher for H. Bowman. Official—Swan.

The principal speaker of the evening will be Mr. Daniel A. Poling, recently a candidate for governor.

prejudice the status of Americans in Mexico.

For the present attitude of the state department will be one of keen observation and non-interference.

Steps of greater importance remain to be taken in the Mexican capital before the Diaz revolution can be accepted as completely successful. Ambassador Wilson and the other members of the diplomatic body of the Mexican capital will immediately recognize General Huerta as the de facto leader of the temporary government. This must be done that foreign representatives may properly look after the interests of their own people. But what will follow that action must be determined by the developments of the immediate future, for there must be substantial evidence of the permanence of the new government and its ability to bring peace out of the chaos which has prevailed in Mexico before political recognition may be extended.

LIFE SENTENCES FOR THREE AUTO BANDITS WHO CONFESS MURDER

Cleveland, O., Feb. 19.—Ed McNamara, Ed Gallagher and James Kelley, three automobile bandits who killed Patrolman Leroy Bouker here on Thanksgiving eve, when he endeavored to intercept them following a burglary, today pleaded guilty to second degree murder in criminal court and were sentenced to life imprisonment in the Columbus penitentiary.

The plea of guilty to second degree murder was accepted in order to save the expense of a trial for first degree murder, the outcome of which was doubtful. The three men, after the killing, fled the city, but after a long chase, were arrested in Buffalo, N. Y.

PLAN TWO MORE ARCTIC VENTURES

American Museum to Send Expedition.

CROCKER LAND PARTY READY

Word is Received From Lang Expedition, Returning From Africa With 30,000 Specimens, Including White Rhinoceros—Another Party Ready to Explore South American Seas.

Announcement was made by President Henry Fairfield Osborn of the American Museum of Natural History, at the annual meeting of the board of trustees recently in New York, of important plans for exploration in the arctic regions, which will be visited by two expeditions this year.

The second Stefansson expedition, now being organized, will start for the Arctic seas in July. It will be under the leadership of Vilhjalmur Stefansson, who discovered the race of blond Eskimos near Coronation gulf. President Osborn announced in his annual report that the exploration party was being organized to extend over three years and that Mrs. Morris K. Jesup has contributed $25,000 to the expedition fund to aid in the work of research.

The National Geographic society is also co-operating with the American museum in organizing the second Stefansson arctic expedition and has contributed a fund of $22,500.

Crocker Land Expedition.

The Crocker Land expedition, which was postponed, owing to the death of George Borup, has been reorganized and will leave early in July to explore the land northwest of Grant Land, observed by Peary in 1906.

This expedition will be conducted by Donald B. MacMillan, who was to be a co-leader of the party, with Mr. Borup.

After exploring Crocker Land it is proposed to divide the party, one section going to Cape Thomas Hubbard for exploration north of the Parry islands and to connect, if possible, with the third Stefansson expedition.

The museum has received news of the Lang expedition, which is returning from Africa with more than 30,000 specimens from the Kongo region, including the white rhinoceros, the giant eland and the rare okapi. A duplicate collection has also been obtained from the Kongo museum of Tervuren, near Brussels.

Many Valuable Trophies.

The third African expedition, under the leadership of William S. Rainsford, the former rector of a New York church, has many valuable trophies of big game, which will be mounted in groups at the museum.

Another expedition has been organized by Dr. Leonard Sanford of New Haven, which has been financed by Frederick Brewster, to explore South American seas in quest of oceanic birds.

The income from the Jesup fund, which now amounts to about $30,000, has been devoted to the purchase of specimens and to the support of various expeditions in the field.

The gem and mineral collections have been increased by gifts from J. Pierpont Morgan, including fine specimens of Brazilian aquamarine, rubellite, tourmaline and other gems.

From Mrs. E. H. Harriman the museum has received a collection of Alaskan ethnological specimens. A collection of calcite crystals is a gift from Grant B. Schuler.

ORPHEUM THEATRE.

While Augustus Neville and Company are rated as the headliners at the Orpheum this week, Dave Lubin and Company rank right alongside them, though of course the acts are entirely different. Lubin and his companions, three young men as clever in black-face work as himself, are taking a half-dozen encores at each performance with the touch of cotton-feld life. "The Humming Bird." Especially beautiful scenery depicting a cotton-field, the arrival of the Robert Lee, a miniature steamboat and the southern tinge of it all lends enchantment to an act that is second to none of the black-face acts on the road today.

"Politics and Petticoats" is going as big as it did last season, and in a manner most charming, while the love vein through the sketch is carefully written and well handled by Miss Elsie Cressy. Hillman is still bringing out many laughs as the "German Chauffeur" and Tony Johnson's aerial dogs are pronounced the best trained seen here for years. The large audience at each performance of the Orpheum attests to the popularity of the well-balanced bill which closes with the 9 o'clock performance this evening.

The above statement was given November 10, 1906, and when Mr. Jackman was interviewed later he said: "Doan's Kidney Pills still gave me hearty endorsement. On one or two occasions since I first publicly recommended this remedy I have caught cold and my back has bothered me. A few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills however, put me in good shape. I will gladly verify all I have ever said in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Museum Needs $1,000,000.

President Osborn stated that the growth of the permanent endowment has not kept pace with the development of the great collections acquired by the museum.

While the museum receives the income from an endowment fund of $2,300,000, an additional fund of $1,000,000 is needed for current expenses.

The museum is about to adopt a new pension plan, whereby provision will be made for the employees of the institution. It is a departure in this country and the first instance known of a museum originating a pension system for the benefit of its employees.

LEAGUE OF EIGHT CLUBS

Planned for the Ohio State League During Coming Season.

LIMA IS PICKED AS SURE ENTRY.

Visit of President Read to Cincinnati Occasions Report.

Jack Ryder, sporting editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, devoted over a column of space to the Ohio State league this morning, which is reprinted below, and which will no doubt be read with interest by local fans, who are beginning to wonder what is going to become of the league this season.

"That sterling little baseball organization, the Ohio State league, has found the bounds of this commonwealth too small to contain it and is about to branch out into the neighboring state of West Virginia. President Robert Read, of Columbus, is making and has practically completed arrangements to bring Charleston and Huntington into his circuit, thus making a very strong eight club league and one that will command respect. These two active and hustling baseball towns were last year in the Mountain State league, which expired about the middle of July, but not through any fault of theirs. They are now ripe for a better class of ball, and it is certain that they are going to get it. They will come into the Ohio State under new and strong ownership and with new managers and players, and will add materially to the Read circuit.

"These West Virginia towns are keen for the national game. They send big excursions down to see the Reds play every Sunday that our boys are at home, and they will patronize local ball right up to the limit. Frank Hancock, of the Reds, who has had his barnstormers through that section every fall for several years, says that he has never visited better cities or ones where more real interest is shown in baseball. Charleston is the capital city of West Virginia and so situated that the great majority of the fans have to get their baseball at home or go without it. It is, however, only 70 miles from Ironton, the most southern point in the present Ohio State circuit, while Huntington is only 20 miles from Ironton, so that the mileage of the league is not increased very much by the admission of these two towns. Charleston has about 25,000 people, while Huntington has 35,000, with 30,000 near by, for Guyandotte, Central City, Wayne, Ceredo, Kenova, Catlettsburg and Ashtabula are all within easy reach.

"President Read has been devoting his attention to getting the right kind of financial arrangements in these towns, and he has succeeded so well that the Ohio State now looks like the best Class D proposition on earth. The Ohio State has lived for five consecutive years without a break, but not without some individual blow-ups. These explosions, of course, cannot be rendered impossible in a circuit of that size, but extra precautions are being taken to keep them down. At the next meeting of the league, which will be held in Columbus on March 3, the Charleston and Huntington delegates will be present, with high grade credentials and prepared to assure the continuance of baseball in their cities throughout the season.

The Eight-Club Circuit.

"The six Ohio franchises are now joined, there are several other towns which may be considered at some future date, in case of a drop by any of those which start the season. Some Hamilton enthusiasts are working out a plan to get their city back into the league. Hamilton was a member during 1911, having the tall end club, which no league can get away from. Hamilton, provided that territory is not occupied by an Interstate League club, may be considered as available. The league officials are also trying to work out some way by which Piqua may be restored to membership some time.

"President Read has developed a working organization for a league of this class, and it is certain that the usual quota of players will be developed for use on teams that are higher up in the classification. Thirteen went up last season, all but one or them to a league higher than Class B. So it looks as if the Ohio State league will cut quite a figure this year. Portsmouth, Ironton, Charleston and Huntington make an ideal southern half for a circuit, while the other four towns, Lima, Newark, Chillicothe and Mansfield, balance nicely. This is a league that looks as if it would go right through without a change."

"Lima has a deficit last year, but no so large a one as was generally believed. Instead of being $3,800 the Lima deficit was only about $4,000, and one fourth of that was caused by a hurricane which blew down the ball park's stands and fences, making hurry-up, and therefore expensive reconstruction necessary. Lima has had a club in the league every day of its existence, and President Harry Wright is figuring on keeping on. Mr. Wright is the superintendent of the Ohio Steel Works, owned by John Kauffman, a Columbus millionaire manufacturer. This combination has plenty of money and will not give up for a few slight losses. Mr. Wright has been under medical care since the first of the year, but returned to Lima the other day and is making things hum. Ironton came into the league in the middle of last season, and finished second to Portsmouth. Affairs there are in excellent shape, as they are in Mansfield and Chillicothe. The Newark club is owned by Frank G. Warden, hotel owner, with headquarters in Chicago, but formerly of Newark. His general representative for the baseball end is Theodore Weitenback, who is now managing the Arcade Hotel at Springfield. The Newark club last year developed Pitcher Baehler, drafted by Detroit, and Pitcher Hanley, sold to the New York Giants.

"Other Towns Available. "While the circuit will be as outlined, there are several other towns which may be considered at some future date, in case of a drop by any of those which start the season. Some Hamilton enthusiasts are working out a plan to get their city back into the league. Hamilton was a member during 1911, having the tall end club, which no league can get away from. Hamilton, provided that territory is not occupied by an Interstate League club, may be considered as available. F. E. Walling, a farmer living near Yukon, Mo., strongly recommends Poley's Honey & Tar Compound and says: "I have been advised by my family doctor to use Poley's Honey & Tar Compound for my children when there was a cough medicine needed. It always gives the best of satisfaction and I recommend it to others." Enterprise Drug Store.

Deputy State Master Spoke to Members After the Banquet.

Weaver, deputy state master, who was present for the evening. His remarks were well chosen, and were exceedingly well received by his audience.

JOINT MEETING WAS HELD LAST NIGHT

Allen County Medical Association and Lima Teachers Met Together.

Intensely interesting, as well as very instructive, was the meeting at the high school building last evening. This was the joint meeting of the teachers in the Lima schools with the Allen County Medical association. The contributory sources of disease, the lack of method in the attempts to stem and prevent contagion, and the need of the schools to fill in where a great many parents fail, having the children treated for their ills, and establishing the proper precautions for keeping the health of the pupils the best, were all thoroughly discussed. Drs. Bates and Rudy each read papers before the assembly. The pertinent question of tuberculosis, and the proposition of excluding those afflicted from the common class room was presented to the meeting.

After the two doctors had completed their papers the president of the medical association called first upon Dr. Steiner, and then upon Supt. Davison for a few remarks. Each responded, and after they had completed the discussion became somewhat general. The meeting was in every part a thorough success.

For a sprain you will find Chamberlain's Liniment excellent. It allays the pain, removes the soreness, and soon restores the parts to a healthy condition. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers.

The convocation will close with a pilgrimage to the tomb of Washington at Mount Vernon on Saturday followed by a banquet at which former Senator Charles A. Tamm and former Governor A. J. Monaghan of Virginia will be the principal speakers.

COMISKEY WANTS PATRONS TO GET MONEY'S WORTH

Chicago, Feb. 19.—Electric indicators are to be placed at three different points in the American League baseball park by President Comiskey in an attempt to away with the annoyance to patrons who have heretofore been unable to catch the names of players and their positions when changes in the lineup become necessary. The new arrangement was given a trial at park yesterday with only four of the indicators in position and the improvement was immediately noted. They will be placed at all stands including the bleachers.
